

High energy use problem solver

Managing your school's energy usage

Research has indicated that the three high energy use activities are lighting, air-cooling and ICT.

To identify strategies to minimise energy use where possible and feasible the "Problem Solver" flow chart below is provided.

